~~My Parents Are Separating—What Should I Do?—Watchtower ...~~

Children express resistance to staying with their other parent in different ways. A child under five may appear clingy, cry, scream or pretend to be ill. Older children may become withdrawn, show disinterest or just be blunt and say, 'I don't want to go'. 'After a few hours of staying at mine, my son says he wants to go home and doesn't want to stay overnight.'
